8. Things to Note When Making Up the Camera Ready Style Manuscript.

1. Size of paper
Use white paper of ISO size A4 (210mm x 297mm) or International letter size, or use the very thin yellow ruled paper, which will not be reflected in the photograph. (Prepare your own papers.)
2. Camera ready style
Submit papers that can be photoengraved just as they are. If it is clean, pasting is acceptable.
3. The number of Pages
Oral Presentation: English text from 2 to 10 pages (with Japanese text from 2 to 10 pages if possible).
Poster Presentation: English text from 1 to 2 pages (with Japanese text from 1 to 2 pages if possible).
4. Size of Journal
This journal is in international size (210mm x 277mm; 20mm shorter than ISO A4 size). Manuscripts are printed in actual size. Therefore, the lower part of the A4 size manuscript is cut.
5. Format
Please look at the format sample and follow it carefully and precisely.
6. Font
Use Times in English and Mincho in Japanese. If these are not available, use fonts similar to them. The size of the points (size of the characters) is specified in the sample.
7. Using Bold
Title, Subtitle, Figures (Fig. no.), Tables (Table no.), their Legends, the first Abbreviations, Reference, Citation, numbers of References.
8. Figures and Tables
Do not make them larger than necessary. Make them as clear as possible. English is necessary for the legends.
If figures and tables are not printed in the text by computer, put them on the text with adequate scaling down.
9. Color printing
Because printing of color figures, photographs, etc. is very costly, (please refer to the price list on the separate sheet), authors must pay their actual costs. (Applicable to invited speakers.)
If there is no written promise of the payment, papers in colors will be printed in black and white.
10. Paging
Enter page numbers with a pencil at the bottom right corner of the papers. Paging should be done as in the form of 1/6, 2/6 ----- 6/6, making the number of total pages as the denominator. If there are the Japanese texts too, put the English one first; the number of total pages is the sum of English and Japanese text pages.

9. Format for References
